‘One of the world’s coolest neighbourhoods’: Kelham Island, Sheffield

Over the last fifteen years, Kelham Island in Sheffield has re-generated itself as the ‘in place’ to live in the north of England. Not bad for a former industrial town.

Voted 35th out of 51 of the coolest neighbourhoods in the world by Time Out magazine in October 2022 and winning the 2018 Academy of Urbanism award for best neighbourhood in Britain, what more could inspire you to live in this part of the world.

Let’s take a look at what’s on offer.

Housing and heritage

Both private and social housing have been developed in abandoned and derelict industrial buildings boasting enviable tree-lined views of the river. Kelham Island is a functioning, working area with plenty of independent shops, flea markets and food halls.

The area is rich in industrial heritage landmarks including the Green Lane Clock Tower, the Bessemer Converter at the entrance of Kelham Island Museum, and the Kurbart street gallery on Green Lane, created by local artists.

Things to do

If you want to discover more fascinating stories about the area, you can take a historical walking tour, which will bring the industrial heritage to life.

Or, if you prefer more of a gourmet version, you could book a place on the Kelham Island Food Tour. The tour takes you to some of the finest eateries and drinking holes in the area to offer you a unique experience.

Transport

- Five minutes to M1 motorway by car
- A five-minute tram ride to the railway station

- Forty minutes by train to Leeds and Manchester
- Just two hours away from London St Pancras

Kelham Island is the perfect place for commuters and visitors alike.
